304 Ray Childress

Ray Childress signed football. Ray Childress is a legendary former defensive lineman for the Houston Oilers. Known throughout his career for being a hard-nosed, "blue collar" player, Ray was a two-time All-American at Texas A&M before being selected in the first round of the 1985 NFL draft by the Oilers. During the prime of his career, the 5-time Pro-Bowler was considered by many to be the best defensive tackle in football.

Donor: Bob Williams

Donor Value: Priceless!

305 Nolan Ryan

Nolan Ryan signed baseball with holder. First ballot Hall-of-Fame pitcher and Texas legend Nolan Ryan played in 27 seasons, the most of any player in MLB history, an amazing accomplishment for a hard-throwing pitcher. His career records for the most strike-outs (5,714), no-hitters and (7) and one-hitters (12) will likely never be broken. His 324 career wins with the Mets, Angels, Astros and Rangers is the 14th highest overall, and he is one of only three pitchers in history to average over one strike-out per inning.

Donor Value: Priceless!

306 Duke Snyder

Duke Snyder signed baseball with holder. Hall-of-Famer Duke Snyder, the "Duke of Flatbush", was a star center fielder for the Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1950s and early '60s. An 8-time All Star, Snyder played in six World Series' in his career, winning two of them. He is the only player to hit at least four home runs in two World Series', and his 407 career HR rank him among the top 50 all-time.

Donor Value: Priceless!

307 Lance Berkman

Lance Berkman, the "Big Puma", is a five-time All-Star first baseman for the Houston Astros. He is among the leading active players in the number of offensive categories, including his 313 career home runs in his 10-year career. In 2006, he became the second switch-hitter of all time (Mantle) to hit at least 40 home runs in multiple seasons. A native Texan, Berkman attended high school in New Braunfels and was voted National College Player of the Year in 1997 at Rice University.

Donor Value: Priceless!
